VOL. IV. NO. 239.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

OFF DAY AT HAWTHORNE.

A damp, chilly day and a track seven seconds slow—rain having fallen in large quantity during the night—were the unfavorable conditions yesterday at Hawthorne, where the attendance was below the average and the play light for the nineteen regular and two field bookmakers. The scratches were as 3 to 8, but forty-seven horses were left in for the six races.

Nora C. was hopped on by the sharpshooters at the rosy price of 5, and she, going to the post at 2 to 1, delivered the goods, and carried to the front for the first time in Chicago the black boy Dupee, who shot the filly along from behind at the last eighth, and catching Rio Chico close in, beat him home. Mr. Sink's horse had risen from 2 to 4 to 1 in the betting. Sidtilla was a close third, therefore the horses ran one, two, three by the betting. Rosie Burke was close up. The Grinder was second to Sun God at the first quarter, but was cut off in the homestretch by Teutons, both finishing fairly well.

Espionage was as good as she could be and when Genna tried to head her at the start for the second race Ezell's crack filly showed her ability to take the track, but was at once restrained by Bloss, Genna leading by two lengths at the far turn. Mr. Johnson was here lapped on Espionage and all others were from ten to forty lengths behind, the rear being held by the newcomer Bob White. The three leaders ran closely together after making the straight, but Espionage always held the others safe and she won in gallant style, hard held from Mr. Johnson, who, whipped in, secured the place from Genna simply because of having up the better jockey. Stamina led the trailers.

As is so often the case with Harry Kuhl's handicaps, the unexpected happened and Mistral II, a long shot, took down the purse for the third race. This horse ran well early in the year, but lately has been rested up. He is a stable companion of Elidad and several of "the handicappers" said when 7 to 1 was posted, "That is a long price." Graziella led to the quarter, where Found passed her and kept the lead to the last eighth, where Mistral II went by the favorite as if she was tied to the fence and an instant later when George Lee came up, Mistral II easily shook him off, winning handily. Found stopped to nothing, but finished third as Graziella and Prince of India were away back. It was Indian file up the backstretch, Found leading Graziella two open lengths, Mistral II third and Prince of India last lengths separating each.

"Dare II. cannot run in the mud" was the cry, and so John Huffman's friends got on at 3 to 1. Locust Blossom was the only horse that headed him in the race, and Dare II. raced her to pieces so that she finished in the ruck, and from the upper turn galloped the remainder of the way, winning easily by three lengths from Lena, who was ten lengths behind the leaders at the half mile ground on the backstretch where Basquil was third to Locust Blossom and Dare II. and King Bermuda fourth. The latter third and beat Hosi, who led the bunch ten lengths. Hosi and Paul Kauvar were interfered with and knocked back at the first turn.

In making book for the fifth race the use of the arc lights was necessary, as the heavy clouds held in the smoke and darkness was threatened; chickens went to roost, but aroused themselves as a passing breeze swept away the smoke and allowed the placing of the horses. Newgatherer went out gaily and with only Lord Zeni to beat after the horses straightened out up the backstretch ran head high in air three lengths in the lead to the last three-sixteenths, where he "dogged" and, although punched out, was easily beaten by Wallace's horse, which was well ridden by Knapp, a valuable addition to the ranks of local jockeys. Czarowitz, leaving the post last of the bunch with the exception of Lady Callahan, who was left standing still, had Harry McCouch beaten in the first half mile and finished third. Fausalight was plugging along up by the sixteenth post, and Jim Blackburn did not do much better.

The smoke and fog made it hard to distinguish the horses in the last race. Idle Hour was touted as a good thing and Cass Sloan, getting him off well, took him back and allowed Teeta May, Amanda and Brother Fred to make the pace. When striking the straight Idle Hour was given his head. He ran right away from the others and won in a romp. Teeta May managed to beat Brother Fred, third, by a narrow margin. Calla Lily chased in the bunch.

The day was uneventful on the calm before the storm principle. Tomorrow's card, quite outside of the Stallion Stakes, is a very strong one. There is to be a full course steeplechase, and in it will appear Populist, a Canadian horse, upon which the money of his party will be wagered, the Canucks saying the horse will win in all probability. He will have to beat Jezebel, Troil and others. There is also a race at two miles for selling players, and two 1-16 mile dashes.

Mr. Corrigan said: "If it rains no more between now and Saturday afternoon the track will be fairly good, and should also the sun come out tomorrow and the wind blow freely we will have a splendid course upon which to decide the Stallion Stakes, a race I think to be a very open one." The starters will all carry weight for age with the exception of Carter H. Harrison, Jr., which gelding has ten pounds off—seven for being a maiden, three because of the non-winning of the get of his sire, Watercress.

Captain J. B. Malone is here with D. C. Shafer's lot of yearlings, which will be sold in the paddock at Hawthorne today. There are sixteen head, the get of Blazes, Prime Minister, Forest, and Lord Esterling, a horse bred much on the lines of Topgallant. It is the first crop of Forest colts, a good racehorse.

James R. Hand is back from his western trip. He sold his entire lot of eight head of horses in South Dakota near the Missouri river and says that on the Black Hill ranges there is plenty of horse racing, the cowboys even at times running their ponies for $500 a side.

Just after the second race Jinks worked three-quarters of a mile, carrying Jockey Gray, and ran as fast as had Espionage in her race.

HAWTHORNE POOLING.

WHAT THEY HAVE DONE.

Of the colts and fillies named to start for the rich Stallion Stakes at Hawthorne this afternoon seven have been returned winners of important closed events east or west, but none have incurred penalties. Sea Lion has won three stake races but one of the trio was not of sufficient value to be a factor in making the winner of three stakes of the value of $1,000 carry a penalty, the New Gayoso Hotel Stakes at Memphis having only been worth $700. Sea Lion's other two stakes were the Ozark at six furlongs and the Chrysanthemum at one mile, both run over the St. Louis Fair Grounds track and each being of the guaranteed value of $1,200 to the winner.

Each of the Fleischmann representatives is a stake winner. Alpen captured the Worden House Stakes, $1,655, at Saratoga and the Youthful Stakes, $1,595, at Gravesend. Sir Hubert took in the Zephyr Stakes, $1,970, and the Pansy Stakes, $1,105, both at Sheepshead Bay. Dr. Eichberg won the Laureate Stakes, $2,005, at Morris Park. Of the others The Barrister is the only one that has won more than one stake event, he having been first in both the Emerald and Diamond Stakes at the Oakley meeting. Miss Marion won the Debutante Stakes at her first start at St. Louis. Jinks won the Hawthorne Stakes at Hawthorne. The winnings of the others were confined to purses. The tabulated record of the youngsters is as follows:

Horses	Wgt.	Sts.	1	2	3	Upl.
Sea Lion	118	21	8	1	4	8
Jinks	115	14	8	0	1	5

A GREAT THOROUGHBRED SALE.

None of the autumn sales excel in importance that which will take place at the famous Belle Meade Farm Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 12, 13 and 14. At one time General Jackson intended to sell his yearlings in Chicago, the sale having been advertised in fact, but changed his intention and postponed the date of sale to the present month and widened its scope so as to include a number of broodmares that will be a prize to any breeder in the land and also the noted stallions Tremont and Dandie Dinmont. The yearlings and weanlings number seventy and owe their paternity to such fashionable sires as Iroquois, Longstreet, Luke Blackburn, Clarendon, Great Tom, Inspector B., Dandie Dinmont, Loyalist and Tremont. No stock farm in this country has sent out more or higher class winners than Belle Meade, and the young horses to be offered at the coming sale are fully up to the standard of former years in all essentials of breeding, conformation, size and promise. General Jackson has made arrangements for reduced rates on all railroads. The sales will begin each day at 10 a. m. Besides the thoroughbreds, a fine lot of ponies, saddle and harness horses, and Jersey cattle will be sold.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune says: "D. R. Keith, who owns Ideal Beau, which ran second to The Doctor at Latonia last Wednesday, has protested the payment of the purse to the latter, claiming he was ineligible for the race. The race was for three-year-olds and over that had not won three races since August 15. Keith claimed that The Doctor won two races at the Carthage Fair since August 15 and also won at Newport. According to this claim, The Doctor was not eligible for the race. William Webb, who owns The Doctor, asked time to look up his races at Carthage, and the Latonia Jockey Club has given him until today to answer. In case the purse is taken away from The Doctor and given to Ideal Beau, it will make no difference in the bets that were made on the two horses."

Will Hayes has had a piece of ill fortune. His good colt Galathee, as a result of the fall which he received at the Newport meeting, will in all probability not be able to face the starter again this year. One of the colt's knees was in bad condition before the mishap, and when he took his tumble over Domozetta in the Newport race he hurt it. The swelling had, however, about disappeared several days ago, and Mr. Hayes again began to jog the colt, but yesterday, after being galloped, he pulled up pretty lame, and then his owner decided to let up on him for the present. He will probably be retired for the season, as Mr. Hayes feels that he is too good a colt to take any great chances with.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

In a recent issue of the Morning Telegraph "Kelston" says of one of the Fleischmann candidates for the Stallion Stakes this afternoon: "Alpen's chance is good, as he is a game consistent performer and his work on Monday morning was the best I have seen at Morris Park this fall, six furlongs, from the quarter pole in the stretch, around to the seven furlong pole on the main track, with 115 pounds up, in 1:16½, which is better work than 1:15 over the last six furlongs of the Withers Mile, so that if he lands in Chicago in good condition it will take a cracker to beat him, as very few horses of any age can show such a trial over the same ground, Bowling Brook being the only horse besides Alpen that I have seen do it this season."

The English Jockey Club has ruled that no races for two-year-olds prior to June 1 shall be worth more than $1,000. The number of races up to this time is not restricted. The ruling however, is calculated to make trainers save their two-year-olds that have shown stake form for the big events after June 1. Long distance racing is also encouraged by a ruling which states that one-quarter of the added money of a meeting shall be devoted to three-year-olds and over at distances of a mile or over, and one-quarter of the added money shall be given to races at a mile and a half and over. This leaves one-half of the added money for two-year-olds and older horses in sprint races.

People who are curious about Tod Sloan's style of riding only have to watch Maher on Alpen today to know all about it. Maher is a boy who puts headwork into his riding. Observing Sloan's success last year this boy set out to ride like him and copies him so closely that one cannot be told from the other a short distance away. Few jockeys have ever come to the front rank as quickly as Maher. Last year he was an unconsidered lightweight. This year he is by common consent the best rider in the east except Sloan and fairly divided honors with him.

J. J. Marklein purchased Mariti from Clay & Woodford Thursday for $300, and won her out the same afternoon, when she captured the last race of the day at Latonia. She is to be campaigned at New Orleans next winter.

J. T. Stewart has purchased the useful two-year-old filly May Be So, by Hindoo—Mary B., from Clay & Woodford.

Clay & Woodford have bought Hano Belle and retired her to their breeding farm.

Winner—B. c. by Eberlee—Ramona.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Eberhart swerved in the stretch but was straightened out and came again. Billy House will be hard to beat in this kind of company. He needed the race. Parakeet was not helped any by his rider, but raced on his own courage. La Fayette tired at the finish. Undue was poorly ridden. Eastabrooks ran a good race.
Scratched—Golden Edge, 100; Asman, 97; Bob Reed, 100.
Overweights—Billy House, 24 pounds; Eastabrooks, 4½; Will Williamson, 3½; Fizzle, 4.

Winner—Ch. f. by Fonso—Peg Woffington.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second easily. The winner outclassed the field and won in a romp. Braw Lad was pulled up at the start. Kittie B ran a good race considering the drilling she received during the season. Maggie S was interfered with on the first turn. The Planet was overweighted and did not like it. Deerslayer showed speed in the first six furlongs.

Performance did not run to the notch. Her race looked very peculiar. Pacemaker closed strong. What Next was nicely handled.

Winner—Ch. f, by The Hero—Nora M.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second, third and fourth were also very busy. Nora C. liked the going and ran a really good race. She was sharply shut off on the far turn but displayed gameness and only got up to Rio Chico in the last twenty yards. Everett got the latter off flying and seemed to have a winning lead on the stretch turn but the colt weakened badly when the pinch came. Sidtilla was right there. Teutons ran a winning race. He stopped on the end as though short. Keep him in mind for early action. The Grinder shot his bolt early. Frank Ireland seems to be of little or no account. He got away well and had no excuses.

Scratched—Oneta, 104; Calchas, 112; Rose Apple, 104; Streamer, 112; Nellie Fonso, 109; Nilmah, 107.

Overweights—Princess Murphy, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won under a stout pull; second and third driving to the limit. Espionage played with her field. Bloss moved up to Genna on the turn, saw he had her beaten, and then dropped back waiting for her and Mr. Johnson to stop, which they both did. Genna had her usual turn of speed, but the distance was a trifle too far for her. Mr. Johnson was poorly ridden. Rutter had him in and out and all over the track. He also took the extreme inside through the stretch where the going was deepest. The race was always between the first three. Just as the barrier arose a big dog got on the track. Ostra almost jumped over him. This accounts for her being far back. Iris was anchored in the going.

Scratched—Weird, 119; Canace, 101; Fontainebleu, 109; Timemaker, 132.

Overweights—Ostra, 4 pounds; Mr. Johnson, 2.

Espionage, place, 2 to 5; show, 1 to 5. Mr. Johnson, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Genna, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, by Florentine—Close the Door.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a mild drive; second and third driving hard. As the race was run Mistral II was the best. He liked the going and was evidently fit and ready. When the pinch came he clearly outgamed Found, but was put to a short drive by George Lee, who came with a rush on the inside. The latter suffered from poor handling. He was on the outside all the way until the stretch was reached and then he came next the rail where the going was deepest. Found stopped badly at the head of the stretch. Graziella was raced to pieces with Found the first part of it.

Scratched—Buckvidere, 108; Dare II, 103.

Overweights—Mistral II, 3 pounds; Prince of India, 2.

Mistral II, place, 4 to 1; show, 6 to 5. George Lee, place, 11 to 20.

Winner—Ch. c, by Odd Fellow—Sister to Pendleton I.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third mildly driven. Dare II was favored by good racing luck and only galloped all the way. The report about him being unable to run in the mud proved to be wrong. He seemed to revel in the going and had Rutter close could have won off by himself. Lena was shut off several times. Considering this, she ran a game race but has not speed enough to beat the winner. King Bermuda is a consistent performer. Paul Kauvar, hard ridden the first half, could not raise a gallop. Throw his race out. Basquil was prominent the first half but could not last. The same comment applies to Locust Blossom.

Scratched—David Tenny, 104; Graziella, 91; Gold Band, 100; Fonclif, 103; Charley Christy, 108; Burlesque II, 105.

Overweights—Basquil, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Fonso—Minnie Williams.

Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won in a mild drive; second driving hard and out to the last ounce. It looked at one time as though Newsgatherer would make a runaway race of it, but when Lord Zeni got to him he stopped badly. Sloan may have made his run too quick. It made little or no difference in the result, though, as the best horse won. It was a three-horse race all the way. Harry McCouch swerved under punishment in the stretch. Jim Blackburn will do better on a fast track.

Winner—Ch. c, by Spendthrift—Flutter.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won eased up. It was a terrific drive for the place. Idle Hour won off by himself. He reveled in the going and was well handled. Sloan got away well but took the colt back and never made a move until the stretch was reached. It was a trifle too far for Teeta May. She had a lot of speed but weakened in the stretch. The mare displayed gameness though in getting the place. Below the sixteenth post Brother Fred passed her but she came on again under punishment. Judge Steadman made up a lot of ground at the finish. Calla Lilly was practically left at the post.

Winner—B. c, by Terra Cotta—Ivy Benjamin.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive. Ivy Cotta got up in the last stride. Onatavia was tiring. Mrs. Jimmie showed improvement. She was probably short, and may be hard to beat from now on. Lizzie Kelly got off poorly and could not improve her position. This was not her race by any means.

Scratched—Mark Hanna II, 103.

Overweights—Mrs. Jimmie, 1 pound; Lizzie R, 3; Jack Carey, 2.

Ivy Cotta, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Onatavia, place, 15 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Mrs. Jimmie, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. g, by Springfield—Milley.
Post 3 minutes. Start perfect. Won handily; second and third driving. Joe Miller came away in the last furlong. He likes a hard smooth track. Guildler took the shortest route and finished strong on the rail, and would have been second in another stride. Albert S. was tiring. It was a bit too far for Sim W. Debride stopped after going a half mile.

Scratched—Earl Fonso, 101.

Off first break to a good start. Won easily; second handily. Annie Taylor came away nicely the last eighth and finished full of running. Josephine K stopped to nothing when the pinch came. Hairpin would not run and Smith pulled him up. Garvin made his run on Prince Zeno too soon.

Overweights—Prince Zeno, 4 pounds; Giles Shine, 2; Josephine K, 2.

Winner—B. f, by Lord Hartington—Iola.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; second easily. Sister Jane went to the front when ready and won in a common gallop. Mason waited too long with Lady of the West. His finish was a weak one, too. Negoncie had all the run choked out of her the first half when she was fighting for her head. She might have been closer up with an intelligent ride. Farm Life and Cynthia H tired in the final furlong.

Scratched—Gertrude, 107; Prima, 107 Sissie Chance, 102; Annie Teuton, 100.
